FOSTER GRANTED A DIVORCE FROM

Firemen Arrive in Time to English Artist Who Named Composer Beecham in Suit Wins Full Court Victory.

LONDON, Oct. 31 -- George Sherwood Foster, the well-known English ertist, was granted a diverce here to-day from his American wift formerly Maude ding this afternoon. There were christian Fairfax, on the ground of mis-and theme at the time and the conduct with Thomas Beecham, the componer and operatic conductor, who had to grope their way to the in July, 1806, and two years later Beecham's father in-law, Dr. Stuart Welles, formerly of New York, Intro-duced Beecham to Mirs. Foster, and, acording to the artist, the case was one of love at first sight.

There was a corpespondence between ened to the fire escape by Beecham and Mrs. Foster, at any rate, which both maintain was purely platonic. Poster got hold of some of the ton the spot. After turning in which he had then delivered to their addressees. He says he also had Mrs. he in the half to the second floor. Faster watched until he thought he had an apartment and made his had sufficient evidence and then began suit. Beechrain, a witness in the case, was as vighrous as Mrs. Poster in denial of the spriist husband's accusations. The Judge, however, accepted Foster's story as true.

Foster was exponerated from the countercharge of cruelty and the costs of the action were placed upon Beech-am.

Beecham's wife was formerly Utica Celeste Welles, the has remarkable talent as an artist and was graduated in law at the Utiversity of the City of New York at the age of sixteen ahead of all the men in her class. Her husband has always been considered devoted to her. Both Mrs. Foster and Mrs. Beecham are famous for their beauty.

The Men's Store Ushers in November with

Heavy TOPCOATS 200

Plaid Back, Satin Sleeves and Shoulders Of Exceptional Quality

To Sell for $25 and $30

This very advantageous offer is the result of early planning on our part.

Just about the time peach trees were in bloom last spring these coats were being made.

That meant first choice of materials and bridged over a dull season in the fac-

Walking-length coats of heavy gray and brown. Plaid fabrics backs. Shoulders and sleeves satin lined. Seams piped. Bellows pockets. In every respect HIGH GRADE garments.

Intended for the kind of weather to which November opens the door. Yet offered at prices that one would expect to find on the tags of such coats at the end of a season instead of at its beginning. In every size.

Attention of discriminating men is called to the careful tailoring as well us to the excellent materials.

First Soft Shirts We Have Ever Imported from England-London-Made But not the last, we assure you!

For in advance of the advertisement, there has been enthusiastic demand. First the exquisite colorings caught the eyes of men passing by the modest corner where these new shirts were placed, awaiting publicity. Then the exceptional workmanship became manifest to those who examined -and a distinctiveness of modeling. One man purchased a dozen in about that many minutes.

In two fine fabrics-Elswick silk and satin-striped taffeta.

In varied color combinations of black and white, pink, lavender and blue, Neglige with French cuffs.

Viewed from several angles, the most distinguished made-ready shirts we have ever seen. $6.50 Main floor, New Building.
